The Moon Angels

Biorhythms

Beloved,

We are responsible for biorhythms in the physical world.

For example, every ninety minutes the body shifts dominance between the sympathetic nervous system, which attunes a child of Divine Being to the divine in the outer world,
and the parasympathetic nervous system,
which attunes a person to the divine in the inner world.

With enlightenment concerning the necessity of cyclic rhythms of life,
day to day traditions of lifestyle become very natural,

so that relaxation and ease promotes health and beauty.

'We are the teachers of biorhythm and periodicity and their use for healing and mystical purposes.'

We help the children of God to understand that *'the nine months of a woman's pregnancy is related to the mystical meaning of the number nine, which is graphically symbolized by three equilateral triangles interlacing one another.

Nine, the highest number, is the number of emotions and of the moon.

We are the controllers of cycles of menstruation, polarity, and periodicity'.

Now that Divine Providence has ordained the healing of the emotional awareness of creation, so that heaven can manifest on earth,

we are especially active in bringing forth the understanding of these natural cycles and their corresponding physical manifestations in body functions.

The prophets foretold that when the Divine Masculine Force of Will and Thought,
which is the electric power,

is perfectly united with the Divine Feminine Power of Emotion and Form,

which is the magnetic power,
that bliss will manifest fully on earth.

*With enlightenment concerning the necessity of cyclic rhythms of life,
day to day traditions of lifestyle will change.*

Each person will take into account their physical, emotional, intellectual, intuitional, aesthetic, awareness, and spiritual biorhythms.

Decisions will respect daily vitality in these areas.

Comparisons of people's periodicity will offer understanding of compatibility in these areas.

Living in conscious alignment with these states creates security, rejuvenation, and creativity,

which allows the human body to take on a state of immortality, ecstasy, and bliss.

Emotions are compressed information that are produced in the Alpha Brainwave State.

This is the state in which psychic faculties are accessed and mastered.

Because emotions, the Divine Feminine Power of magnetism, has been held in such fear and superstition, it is only now that the children of God are finding a way to heal and understand them.

It is only as all emotions, both positive and negative,
are embraced with unconditional all encompassing love, validation,
forgiveness and acceptance
that the practice of suppressing, controlling, denying, medicating, and destructively acting out negative emotions to self, others, and property is being replaced with letting emotions flow in a safe and non-destructive manner to heal.

Like comforting an upset child, when negative emotions are acknowledged with unconditional love, and allowed to flow in a safe way, these emotions transform.

Insights arise during this process that reveal additional information about traumatic experiences that created these negative emotions.

These insights bring forth understanding, compassion, and healing of any negative beliefs about the nature of reality that were the result of these traumatic experiences.

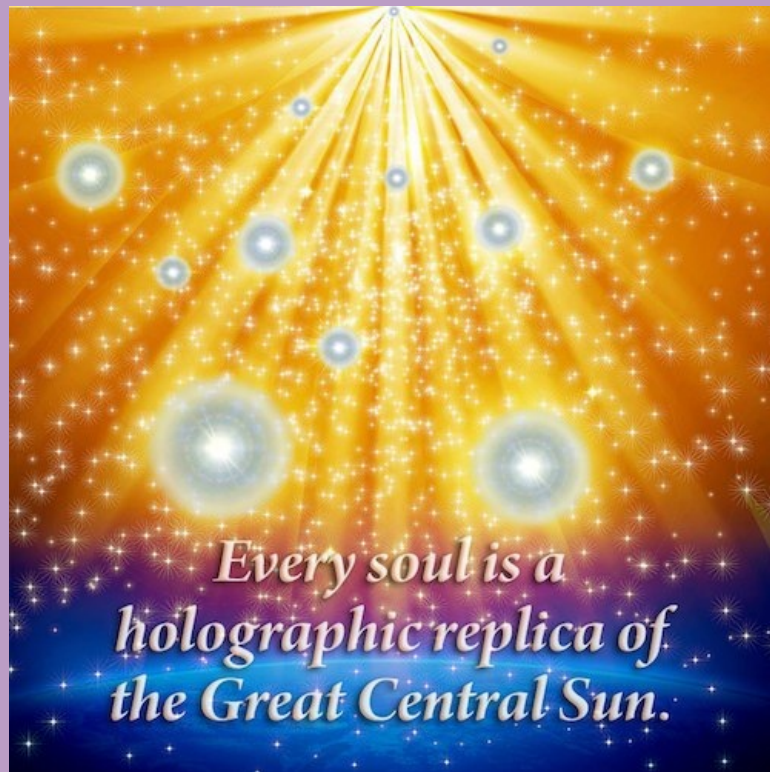

We are teaching the children of God to understand biorhythms, so that they know the best times to let emotions flow naturally and safely heal into ecstatic states.

Emotions are the magnetic power.

This magnetic power attracts realities out of the quantum field into manifestation.

When emotions are ecstatic, heavenly realities are attracted into manifestation on earth.

That is why it was spoken,
"And the last enemy to be overcome is death."
