29 degrees Gemini

The Angels of Advanced Initiation

Also known as

The Angels

of

Sibolas

Beloved,

We further initiate students on paths of enlightenment.

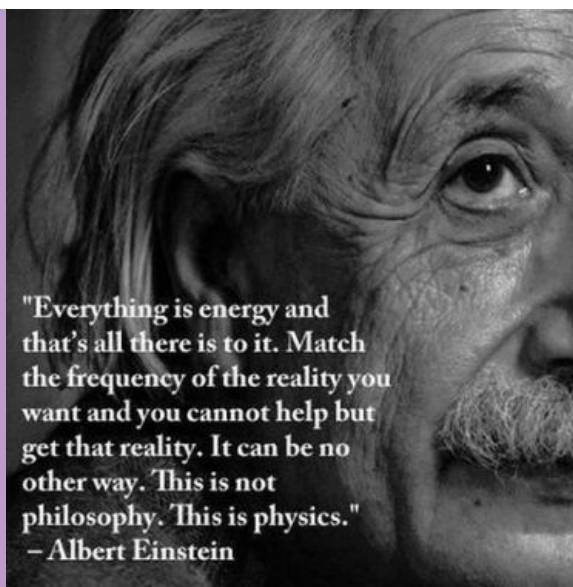

We help each student understand the correspondence between inner powers and outer events.

We teach how the inner creating of outer events in meditation and imagination, connects a person to the heavenly hosts, and actually draws them into active participation with these events.

Remember it was written:

"All that I do ye shall do and more."

Not only is it possible for people to perform miracles, it is absolutely necessary.

That is why the Angels of Mafalach, 27 degrees Gemini, spoke of the importance of removing all obstacles to seeking the Kingdom of Divine Being, and knowing that this divine kingdom must first be found within.
Once it is found within, it is seen as everywhere.

Then the Angels of Kaflesi, 28 degrees Gemini, help by giving initiation for successfully finding the Kingdom of God within.

Gemini is a path of Divine Mental Wisdom, and at 29 degrees Gemini, we now particularly stress the importance of using powers generated by inner meditations on creating powerful events in the outer world that are the highest good of all concerned.

We show how to attract Divine Angels and the hosts of the Kingdom of Heaven
to participate in these events, so that even greater miracles happen.

Here is one of our stories:

LOVE CONQUERS ALL

Once upon a time there were disturbing rumors upon planet earth that negative alien beings were hiding in secret places and were attempting to control the consciousness of the children of God.

A man named Mark had read many accounts in books and on the internet of the activities of such aliens.

Some of the accounts documented aliens of good intent and influence, but many documented aliens that were unfortunately very dangerous.

He was fascinated with these stories and learned much about attempts to help and protect, or harm and exploit, the people of earth over many centuries.

Sometimes he would have very lucid out of body experiences concerning these things.

One experience particularly disturbed him.

It concerned powerful dragon-like beings using mankind to produce chaotic negative conditions in the magnetic-emotional realm.

These reptilian beings harvested the negative magnetic energy for their own mysterious purposes.

He couldnt shake his impressions of this.

He was fairly convinced that this was a very real danger.

What could he do?

He knew intuitively, deep inside, that there was a way to meet this challenge.

First he must go within and find his deepest inner peace and equilibrium.

He prayed, he asked, and inner guidance inspired him to go alone on a long hike in the mountains to meditate.

He planned to be gone for several weeks, far away from the city.

He filled his backpack with everything needed for survival and comfort, carefully wrapping his well worn book on the heavenly hosts in plastic for protection from the rain.

In a state of inward meditation and prayer he hiked far up the north slope of an unusual area that the locals called Mount Asham, passing by a beautiful waterfall and magnificent wildlife.

He found himself unexpectedly drawn to an almost hidden beautiful bubbly spring, in a sacred hollow, surrounded by tall trees and unusual large rock outcroppings.

He set up a cozy comfortable camp nestled between two tall protective rocks.

As he sat down against one of these rocks and closed his eyes, he felt the presence of generations of native people, and knew that they had camped and prayed in this very spot.

The hike had been unusually tiring and difficult for him, so he was very glad to meditate and rest.

He felt his heart bursting with joy and relief, surrendering to the majesty of the outdoors!

"Ah how beautiful nature is!", he thought.

Over the next few days, deep meditations in the splendor and majesty of God's natural creation filled him with flowing blissful emotions of divine virtues.

So deep was the peace that he felt, that now when his thoughts turned to the possibility of interference in the affairs of mankind by unknown and hostile beings, deep soothing comforting feelings flowed through him, and he remembered that with God all things are possible.

He remembered that "all things work for good to them that believe."
He heard the words, "Give thanks for all things, for this is my will concerning you."

In humble faith, he prayed,
"I give thanks for that which I don't understand.
I give thanks for all that is occurring, whatever it is, for I know that all things work for good."

He felt his body shudder with relief, and such a deep peace came upon him, that he knew that any situation can be turned around with the powers of the Divine virtues,
and the Heavenly hosts,
and with Divine Being, omnipresent, omnipotent, omniscient.

As he lay there, hour after hour, praising God and feeling greater and greater rapture awaken within him, works of great spiritual masters of history came to mind.

He grew strong in the faith that somehow, all does work for good, and that NOTHING is impossible to those that believe.

Finally, as the campfire was blazing high, casting beautiful flickering light upon the trees and the large boulders, an unusual presence surrounded him.

He went into deep meditation, and prayed for guidance about the rumors of dangerous aliens harming earth.

As he did so, an especially sacred deep quiet and loving peace descended on the hollow.

The presence of the Angels of Sibolas was upon him.

In deep meditation they took him on a journey.

It was a very lucid out of body experience.

He was flying high above the earth looking down.

With simultaneous macroscopic and microscopic vision, his attention attuned to natural processes of the ecosystem and its cycles of life, of death and rebirth.

He saw strange looking organisms in the earth and waters whose purpose in the ecosystem was breaking down decaying vegetation and other organisms and bodies to make good soil and nutrients out of which new life grew.

Then the Angels of Sibolas brought him back to the campsite.

They helped him center and reverse his focus to look inwardly inside his own body.

He saw strange monster-like bacteria in his gastrointestinal tract breaking down food and turning it into nourishment, so that nutrients passed through the walls of his intestines to enter the bloodstream in an endless cycle of life and rebirth.

He saw how that which his body did not need, was effortlessly passed out each day in bowel movements, to be recycled as nutrients to the earth herself.

The Angels emphasized how everything works according to the principle of analogy.

"As above, so below".

On every level of consciousness;
be it being, will, thought, emotion, or sensation, energy goes through cycles of birth, maturity, death, decay, and rebirth.

He saw how polarity exists, that it must exist, for creation to exist.

Hot and cold, up and down, big and small, the one and the many, etc., the polarities revealed their purposes one after the other.

As energies on all these levels go through the cycles, he saw that out of necessity that there must be polarities of beings causing both construction and destruction, both transformation and transmutation.

When Spirits, souls and life of beings have lived their lives, and are ready to move into other states, their old forms are no longer needed, and are turned into nourishment for other life forms.

He saw again and again, with scientific precision, the purpose and necessity of the monster-like beings that break down the old forms of matter, emotions, thoughts, and will,
when they are finished and ready to decay.

These amazingly bizarre-looking beings were not created in vain, they were necessary in the cycles and rhythms of life,
and were in harmony when decomposing these energy forms.

Even though they could be labeled destructive beings, destroying and recycling old forms, he could see their purpose, and understood now the saying,
Gods love is like the Sun, it shines equally on the good and bad alike.

For all things there is a purpose.

He could see why it was possible to, Give thanks for ALL things concerning you.,
and could even further understand that,
All things work for good for them that believe.

As above, so below.

He understood now why it was possible for him to move from fear to love.

Deeper and deeper into this experience he went, sitting there in a perfect yoga posture in vivid meditation.

He had clear recollections of different kinds of organisms under a microscope in biology class years ago.

They had looked just like strange monsters.

As he pondered this he got up and went for a walk.

He sat down on a rock next to the creek and looked down at the rich earth.

He saw that it was alive with organisms that would look fearful under a powerful lens, and yet they were good organisms and life could not survive without them.

Energy had to go through cycles of birth and decay and rebirth, just as day turns in to night, and night turns in to day.

In his minds eye he saw that it took many beings and organisms on many levels to process each step of these life cycles, big and small.

The analogy between the "As above, So below" was alive for him even more, as he thought about the amazing dragon-like beings harvesting negative emotional energy.

He realized that people learn from mistakes, that when something happens that does not feel right, corrections are made over time, wisdom gained.

He realized that love and faith, not judgment and fear, are the proper responses to the strangeness of life.

These were some of the steps he took, as he moved out of the constant temptation to give in to paralyzing fear, of the possible unknown strange alien reptile-like beings that seemed to be taking over the earth.

He further understood, that like with any illness, either in a person's body or with a whole planet or galaxy, that whoever and whatever these alien beings were,
that omnipotent, omnipresent, and omniscient Divine Being could bring them into harmony and restore joy to all.

He began to see that there could be a place and a purpose for them, and that it was true that love, not fear, was the way to deal with them.

The key was harmony.

There must be wisdom and harmony between the constructive and destructive polarities of creation.

This was the original intent and blueprint of Divine Mind.

There must be harmony for everything large and small, so that all life is joyful according to the original Divine Blueprints of creation.

He knew this harmony must be established with Omnipotent Divine power, so that all creation manifests true spiritual morality and the splendor and majesty of the original purity of all ideas in Divine Mind.

Love conquers all.
"Gods love is like the sun, it shines equally on the good and the bad alike."

He remembered it was written:
"I have not given you the spirit of fear, but of joy, and life everlasting."

He had put it all together!

The Dream of Separation...

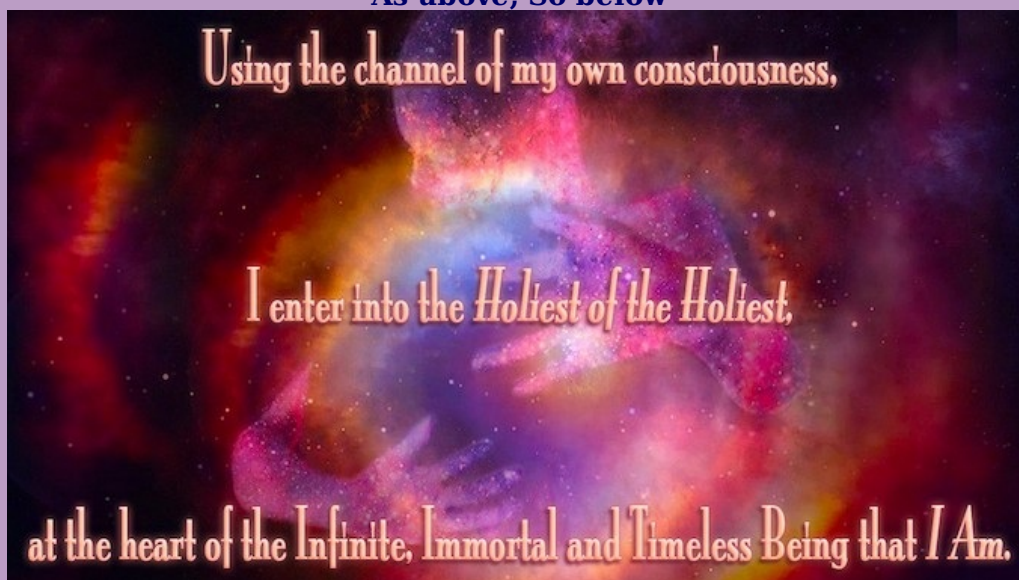

is OVER ...

He was so thankful that he had taken this time out of his busy schedule to retreat to nature, and pray and meditate!

The key to everything was balance and harmony between polarities, as The Law of One allows everything to exist and function, according to the highest good of all concerned.

Just as organisms such as termites or bacteria can be harmful or cause sickness when they are out of harmony, with of the natural order of original Divine Will for the highest good of all concerned, so can beings from other dimensions of consciousness be harmful, when they are out of natural harmony and order of things.

The key was to invoke The Law of One, and use The Law of One and The Law of Correspondences!
As above, So below

He had known for a long time that The Law of One is the original law of Creation, and is the supreme Law over all laws in all dimensions.

"What you do unto the least of these, you do unto me."

With great gratitude, he meditated on The Law of One in this situation.

He called forth all beings connected to the earth in any way, all beings known and unknown,
and spoke to them.

He felt their presence and said to them,
Thank you for who you are.
Thank you for being.
Thank you for all you do.
I ask for your highest good, for we are all one.

Then he said to them the entire law:

THE LAW OF ONE

We are all one.

When one is harmed, all are harmed.

When one is helped, all are helped.

Therefore, in the name of who I AM,

and I AM one with all there is;

I ask that ONLY THE HIGHEST GOOD OF ALL CONCERNED happen.

I give thanks that this is done.

SO BE IT!

He felt the energy shift.

There, with all of them together in his meditation, he was able to bring about harmony and order into all realms of all these beings,
and The Law of One,

the highest good of all, was obeyed.

In the deep beauty of the ancient forest, he repeated this experience many times over the next few days.

Going deep inside, he summoned Universal Consciousness and the Living
Flame of Divine Love.

He asked the heavenly hosts to join with him as he meditated on his own inner microcosm and the outer macrocosm.

He experienced in deep mediation his original pure being that is one with Divine Being and all creation.

He sensed himself as a tiny dot in his solar plexus and imagined his body as a vast swirling universe all around him.

He invoked and felt the presence of many angels and beings of heaven.

Together they spoke and invoked The Law of One into his entire body universe.

With his out breath they spoke together and invoked The Law of One in the outer universes.

They meditated on the letter S, which is the Divine Virtue of all-penetrating-willpower for the highest good of all.

Together they saw his body fill with violet red light emanating from a tiny sun in his head.

They chanted the letter S to the sound of G-sharp. They felt the heat of will, expansion, faith and fire and meditated on Divine Willpower within
and over all the elements of his body universe, including the bacteria, mitochondria, T-Cells, and all of the infinite variety of organisms and beings.

With his out breath, they saw the purple red radiance of all-penetrating-power for the highest good radiating out to the outer universe
through the pores of the skin over his gall bladder.

He dissolved the purple red light, to protect the balance of elements in his body.

Then, keeping the rhythm of his breath natural, they moved into the meditation for the Divine virtue of the letter I, which represents the Law of Cause and Effect.

Then they moved into the Divine virtues of the letters B, O, L,
A, and finally finished again with S.

As they did this, he knew that together they had illuminated his entire body and also the entire outer universe with Divine Willpower for the highest good, mastery of cause and effect and The Law of One, the understanding and mastery of polarity, the supreme true spiritual morality and majesty and splendor of God, enlightenment, transformation of imperfections, and Divine Omnipresent
omnipotent will yet again.

He experienced so wonderfully the power and presence of the heavenly beings and virtues that he knew that all had changed within him and within the outer universe.

He knew that everything was going to be all right.

Unbeknownst to him, prior to his trip into the mountains, he had picked up some harmful intestinal parasites, alien amoebas from drinking water on his trip to Mexico last winter.

It was these internal beings that had so sapped his strength the past few months and tired him on this trip in the mountains.

The meditation had transformed these beings into another realm where their energy would be the highest good of all concerned.

His health improved greatly overnight.

Full of energy, Mark spent the rest of the week in wonder and bliss, immersing himself in the perfection of nature's leafy cathedrals.

He knew he wanted to share what he had learned.

He decided that when he got back to the city he was going to set up evening workshops at the university on the subject of how to use love and mastery to bring about the highest good of all concerned, especially in situations of fear and danger.

He prayed to the Angels of Sibolas to bring proper heavenly hosts to help him.

As the heavenly hosts gathered around him in meditation, he made arrangements for them to gather together the students that should come to the workshop.

He asked them to prepare the students on the inner planes ahead of time, to inspire him and them as he taught the course, and to follow through and help each student integrate the information in the way that was the highest good.

He gave thanks, for he knew in his heart that it would be as he had asked.

Then one evening as the sun was setting over the western flank of Mount Asham, surrounded by angels, Mark raised his arms and sang with a heart full of powerful everlasting love to all beings everywhere, in all dimensions.

"Hear ye, hear ye all beings!"
he sang in a loud voice that echoed through the valleys,

" I invoke The Law of One!

We are all One; when one is harmed all are harmed. When one is helped, all are helped! I ask in the name of Who I AM, and I AM ONE with ALL, that only the highest good of all concerned happen here and everywhere!"

In deep silence the earth and heavens shifted yet again with the power of this decree.

This shift affected the past, the present, and the future.

His prayer was answered at the highest level, and now would filter down into manifestation.

His heart melted with flowing emotions of transcendent gratitude of answered prayer.

I give thanks that this is done!
SO BE IT!"

Legions upon legions upon legions of Angels joined in this experience, and legions upon legions upon legions of beings, seen and unseen, of every kind and description in all dimensions were reorganized, and brought into the highest divine harmony for all.

All were blessed in unconditional, all encompassing Divine Love and Perfection.

Footnotes:

The names and meaning of angel groups come from Quaballah, which is a very ancient set of teachings which together form a common precursor, or root, of three of the world's religions: Judaism, Islam, and Christianity.

Each degree of the zodiac is ruled by a high being of the heavenly host in the zone girdling the earth, and the angels who work with him or her. The being and the angels share the same name. This name is a key to their powers and influence.
