The Angels of Ancient Miracles and Levitation

Also known as

The Angels

of

Losimon

Beloved,

The virtues of Losimon produce miracles to make earth a home that is a pleasurable and happy place for all sentient life, a true manifestation of heaven on earth.

We teach the mystery of magic equilibrium, which is the experience of unified harmony of being, will, intellect, emotions, and sensations.

We teach insights about true morality, enlightenment, and divine perspectives about the meaning of good and evil.

We inform about original mysteries and religious systems of Earth.

We inspired original Divine religious systems to enliven strong and clear intent with specific visualization and powerful flowing emotions for the purpose of manifesting the splendor and majesty of Divine Being.

These visualizations and emotions attracted amazing phenomena out of the quantum field of infinite possibilities.

Only to the extent that true spiritual morality was valued, could these systems and mysteries be successful and long lived.

The splendor and majesty of Divine Being, which is the sum total of all of the divine virtues taken together, is the source of true spiritual morality, youthening and vitality.

This is the Divine virtue of the first letter of our name, the letter L.

This virtue shines with the most lovely translucent olive green light

Original Divine mysteries and religious systems of antiquity were thus inspired to see creation through the eyes of Love Divine.

To the extent that this goal was adhered to,
Divine Justice and Harmony were manifested, bringing success and satisfaction to all concerned.

These are the virtues of umlaut O, eu, and O.

They shine with deep orange light and ultramarine blue light respectively.

We confer acute discernment and understanding of the legality of spirituality, which is the maintaining of harmony in the web of life.

Original Divine mystical systems were inspired to access omnipotent all-penetrating-will for the highest good of all.

This virtue comes from the Delta brainwave state of pure being and unity
with Divine Being and all Creation.

It gives control over all beings.

This is the divine virtue of the letter S, that shines with a purple red light.

We teach the children of God to control the electric fluid, which is the fire principle of WILL, desire, and INTENT.

Will and intent flow as electricity through visualizations of that which is desired.

These visualized images form a mold that shapes this electricity and determine corresponding thoughts and concepts and beliefs.

These, in turn, attract emotions, which in turn attract corresponding realities into manifestation out of the quantum field of infinite possibilities.

We inspired these religious systems to operate from The Laws of Cause and Effect, the divine virtue of letter I.

Therefore, we reveal insights into divine laws of karma, which are the laws of cause and effect.

"Ye shall reap what ye sow."

We teach the law of evolution and history of such unfoldment, in context of metaphysical laws such as the "as above, so below".

In understanding ancient miracles, especially levitation, we confer insight into the divine virtue of flowing emotion, feelings, fluidity, magnetism and change.

Emotions control gravity.

We especially inspire flowing emotions of omnipotence.

"With the faith of a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say to a mountain, be ye removed unto the sea, and it shall be done."

The virtue of flowing emotions, feelings and the change process is the virtue of letter, M, of our name.

We teach the principle of fluidity, of emotional flowing, which also allows a person to monitor the course of evolution in any area, place, or period of time by understanding the emotions of that place and time.

We teach how to master the magnetic fluid, or emotional feeling energy, in order to master the laws of gravity.

The next letter in our name, the letter "O" creates transmutation, which is caused through cognition brought about by love divine.

Love conquers all....it is embraced by everything in creation, from the smallest to the largest.

By seeing through the eyes of love, resistance is overcome.
By seeing through the eyes of love, any changes made are for the highest good of all.

This causes existing realities on every level to gladly embrace change.

Then success and satisfaction for all manifests through the divine virtue of justice and harmony.

We help people understand that justice IS harmony and harmony IS justice.

This virtue of harmony reveals the mysteries of astro and metaphysics.

To the extent that the changes that are made increase and perfect harmony between all beings, to that extent are these miracles possible.

By seeing through the eyes of Love Divine, the underlying original perfect divine blueprints are seen in anything in creation.

This awakens divine cognition which results in transmutation into perfection.

We teach the children of God how to attune to divine justice, so that they have the power to evoke any scenario to manifest, with an absolute sense of divine justice, order and harmony.

We inspired these virtues in ancient mysteries and religious systems so that they manifested situations that encouraged flowing emotions of

Divine Supreme Happiness.

To the extent that they manifested feelings of divine happiness, they were successful,
and found solutions to any problems.

This is the final Divine virtue of our name, the letter N.

We reveal the stage of development of any spirits, how to achieve absolute mastery over all beings on earth in a way that is in harmony with Divine Will,
in addition to how to control electromagnetic fluids, which are the flowing energies of WILL and EMOTIONS, to regulate and/or overcome even the force of gravity.

Divine Providence has given us responsibility to reveal how these Divine virtues expressed themselves in various ancient mysteries and religious systems,
so that the deep roots of enlightenment from the past are brought forth into the present where they bloom again in fresh and unique ways.

It is the understanding, generation, and mastery of clear intent and visualization that reflect the Will of Heaven, held in meditation, combined with corresponding FLOWING DIVINE EMOTIONS,
that manifest perfection throughout all times in history.

It is through intense flowing tangible feelings in the body of emotions that enough magnetic power is generated to attract and manifest these sacred visualizations of the new desired realities upon earth.

Therefore, mastery of awareness in moment to moment living results in control of the manifestation process.

We help the sons and daughters of Divine Being understand this, that clear visualization, intent, and mastery of flowing emotions is the mystery of the change process.

Miracles result.

ALL of the miracles and powers of ancient religions and priesthods depended on mastery of clear intent, visualization, and FLOWING EMOTIONS.

These emotions and feelings came from DIVINE INTENT, and faith, intent attuned through inner guidance with Omnipotent, Omnipresent, Omniscient Will of Divine Providence for the highest good.

Just as a computer works on two principles, the 1 and the 0, so do all miracles depend on the electro-magnetic polarity of WILL AND EMOTIONS.

It is important that the sons and daughters of Divine Being reclaim their desire to be happy, to reclaim abilities to enter into flowing states of Divine supreme happiness, for happiness is the principle of coherence.

In a state of divine happiness solutions to problems are easily known and manifested.

The virtues of Losimon produce miracles to make earth a home that is a pleasurable and happy place for all sentient life, a true manifestation of heaven on earth.

To produce emotions and feelings that are powerful enough to create strong miraculous changes, it is best that ALL OPPOSING NEGATIVE EMOTIONS that are being held on subconscious levels which contradict the feelings being generated for a miracle, are healed, transformed and transmuted, through unconditional love and empathy.

When painful emotions have been suppressed and denied, they form functional sub personalities that operate behind the scenes, that may sabotage the conscious self that is attempting to perform a miracle.

Negative emotions that are allowed to come up and flow to resolution safely and nondestructively, with love and validation for the wounded inner child selves, will naturally heal.

However, these powerful emotions, such as anger, despair, hatred, grief, guilt, greed, etc. must FLOW in a safe and non-destructive way.

That is why outmoded socially sanctioned practices of suppressing, denying, or by-passing painful or wounded emotions, the old paradigm, must be re-evaluated, and replaced by enlightened understanding of how emotions heal through flowing safely in an atmosphere of LOVE.

Painful emotional traumas are not healed by avoiding them.

The new paradigm of emotional healing teaches that all wounded emotions were at one point normal responses to traumatic situations, and that the parts of the self that are still traumatized should be validated and allowed to feel their painful and normal emotions, and flow to natural resolution safely in non-destructive ways.

Loving all feelings, and loving all the parts of the self that are generating them
facilitates intense periods of catharsis,
and is an integral part of the recapitulation procedure.

“God’s love is like the sun, it shines equally on the good and bad alike.”

For miracles to happen, it is necessary to generate a whole self visualization with whole self flowing tangible feelings in the body.

Therefore, when the performing of miracles is desired, it is time to embrace the paradigm of loving all emotions alike, for the purpose of healing them and the wounded inner selves, with unconditional all encompassing love, instead of resisting, fearing, condemning, denying, hating, or acting out negative ones in destructive ways.

THE LAW OF FEELINGS IS THAT EMOTIONS CHANGE BY BEING FELT.
Emotions heal themselves by flowing nondestructively.

A good cry is essential to emotional health when sadness comes up for healing.

The emotional ‘body’ is the astral body.

The emotional body must have good circulation.

Emotions must move.
Emotions must breathe.

Just like the physical body, the astral or emotional body knows how to heal when given the proper conditions.

“As above, so below.”

Earth is 80 percent water.

The human body is approximately the same.

Just as desire and faith is analogous to fire, and thought is analogous to air, emotions are analogous to water.

By loving all emotions with UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, and gratitude for all the lessons learned from experiencing them, it is possible to let them flow and heal and purify.

This is necessary for generating states of divine happiness that are required for miracles and levitation, especially from the subconscious mind.

When you heal the past, you heal the present and heal the future.

In letting negative emotions flow and heal, ground rules of how to do emotional expression are needed to ensure success;
safeguards should be followed, such as always working on strong emotions within a protected context that has been spelled out and agreed-to in advance.

Strong emotions are powerful, both negative ones and positive ones.

Wounded painful emotions, in order to heal and change, MUST be allowed to flow, but safely and non-destructively.

Strict clear limitations, already in place, prevent destructive, acting out toward self, others,
and/or the environment
as long suppressed emotions of anger, fear, shame, and helplessness are finally allowed to unfreeze and move.

Remember, for recapitulation of emotional traumas to work most efficiently and effectively,
'old' painful emotions are processed and healed as follows:

As old painful emotions come up in day to day life, the astral body is naturally working to eliminate emotional toxins, just as the physical body does in eliminating solid wastes.

The key is to feel them through completely and consistently, just as it is necessary to take time out to have a complete bowel movement when the physical body needs to eliminate wastes.
"As above so below."

In the ancient process of recapitulation, the memory of a traumatic event or situation is recalled by focusing on present time painful emotions and asking "when have I felt this way before?"

Once a painful memory is recalled, it is relived in the imagination over and over enough times to access all the emotions related to it; it is repeated vividly in the imagination from beginning to end over and over until ALL emotions associated with the original emotional trauma
are FELT-THROUGH and allowed to come to resolution.

Each time a memory is relived, more of the memory comes up, along with more of the original emotions.

It is not advisable for an upset person to interrupt emotional-expressive work "in mid stream".

One potential consequence is that the upset person might act out upset emotions impulsively and create self sabotage.

It is good to bring upset emotions to resolution quickly.

As with any skill on any level, with practice this skill becomes easier and easier,

quicker and quicker.

Use eye movement, such as the body uses in dreaming sleep, moving the eyes back and forth, right to left to right to left, over and over again while flowing with emotions.

This quickly processes emotional energies by moving them back and forth between the two hemispheres of the brain.

Again, it is by FEELING (expressing) of emotions that they “expend” their energy, are transformed, and evolve.

The memories themselves change as the emotions change.

If the process is carried through to resolution, the memory changes completely as do the emotions.

A person can see how going through the remembered experience taught them
much wisdom, and deepened their desires for harmony in life.

The memory becomes one of a valued lesson.

This happens because powerful, life-changing INSIGHTS into the nature of the original wounding event—into the why and the how and about the people involved in the original wounding event—
spontaneously arise from the psyche as emotions flow and memories are relived in the imagination.

These insights give new perspectives on what “really” happened and why,
from the standpoint of the higher self.

This process of recapitulation turns what has been perceived as a negative experience to be an experience that demonstrated to the soul the importance of only creating and receiving the highest good of all concerned.

Appreciation for wisdom that was gained and lessons learned replaces victimhood.

The memory comes to a totally new kind of closure once the bad emotions have revealed so many insights and the emotions have completely changed.

For example, in a traumatic memory where a father physically spanked his son much too abusively, the son may grow up believing that he somehow deserved the
spankings,
or that he did something to cause the father to beat him so badly.
He may feel undeserving and unworthy and afraid of life.

In this instance, one type of great, “aha” breakthrough insight about thoughts of the fearful nature of reality, that might have come from this experience, might be that the beatings were not caused by him at all!

In reliving the memory of this traumatic situation, he might realize that it was the father's own upsetness, his father's own frustrations, and not anything about him personally, that caused this destructive acting out toward him in the form of violent spankings.

He realizes, " Oh my goodness! “It wasn’t my fault!”

The negative thoughts, that he was unlovable and helpless, have changed now.

The small abused child finally realizes, years later as an adult, through processing the emotions of the memory, that his father did NOT beat him because he was unlovable child or not good enough,
or even because his father was an unreasonable monster.

The realization occurs that his father was doing to him what his father's father had done to his father when he was child.

Now, finally, he understand that the abuse that his father had suffered himself as a child was the true cause of the violence.

Abuse is learned and passed down generation to generation.

Finally he understands the cause, namely that an early painful memory of his Father's, that had been forgotten for a long time, was reactivated in the father (say, by an unhappy job situation or dysfunctional relationship), so that the father's own, wounded negative emotions,
from his own childhood, spurred him to ACT OUT destructively toward his own son.

Typically, the son grasped this insight only after he unburdened himself of the old,
unworthy guilty feelings that clouded his perspective.

He did this by letting these painful feelings flow and process.

At the end, he not only had an entirely new and healthy self image, but also empathy and forgiveness for the father.

By understanding the original wounding event in greater depth through finally letting all the emotions flow in active remembrance, healing occurs even on the deepest levels of core beliefs about self,
and about others involved,
and about life and about the nature of reality itself.

New insights not only bring up new ideas about the nature of reality, but also vivid visual healing images in the deep meditative state of remembering.

Visual images are the language of the brain, of the superconscious, conscious, and subconscious minds

If the original traumatic memory is to be permanently put to rest, these healing images need to be re-integrated with the original, often horrific, visual images of the original traumatic memory.

This is because the brain speaks to itself in visual images.

Even though the emotions have changed, which is the healing of the heart,
for the brain to heal as well as the heart,
the pictures of the trauma must also change.

When you first remember a traumatic event, make a note of the visual image associated with it.

You can think of this image as a snapshot of the event happening.

In the example above of the abusing father spanking his son, the original picture could be a dark room, with the angry father who has just come home from being fired storming through the door in a rage,

and the young child cowering against his little bed in terror and fear.

As all the emotions and insights flow, the final healing image could be Jesus, or a saint or angel, appearing from heaven and hovering over the angry father, healing him in strong beams of light and love, causing the father to burst out in tears as his own deep wounding from his own childhood heals.

In this new vision, the subconscious mind reveals a vision of his tearful father looking up at his son and asking for forgiveness for ever having abused him.

In this image, the son no longer sees his fathers hands as instruments of torture, holding a belt to beat him, but sees the hands emitting a wondrous healing light.

So he learns to literally push the original snapshot of the painful event into the final healing image, and merge them together, to create a third image, or an amalgam, that forms what is known as a "resolution image".

In this case, the resolution image might include a vortex opening up through time itself, and a vision of generations of ancestors healing in the same way.

Because a memory is made up of ONLY three aspects:
visual images, emotions, and thoughts, once ALL THREE of these are changed through recapitulation, the memory is permanently healed.

>From this point on, when this event is remembered, it calls up the new resolution image with the new positive emotions and thoughts that go with it.

Each person has A FINITE number of old traumas that are held in the subconscious.

One by one they come up in present time when a triggering event awakens them.

So one by one they are healed through recapitulation.

Over time, as more and more of the old emotional traumas are permanently healed, the physical body and the astral body become more and more relaxed, clear and happy.

As this happens it is EASIER to generate ever more clear, pure and omnipotent flowing emotions of divine virtues to attract miraculous manifestations into physical reality.

Now, whenever a person visualizes any desired outcome, it becomes all the more inevitable to occur according to the power of corresponding flowing emotions associated with it.

For this reason flow with POWERFUL blissful emotions of the happy reality you have visualized happening.

When flowing emotions are strong enough, even the magnetic force of gravity can be replaced, by the visualization of the desired levitation and magnetic attractive powers of faith and emotions of success and happiness, lightness and relaxation.

We are heavenly hosts that can add the power of our emotions and nothing is impossible.

"To the children of God is given dominion over all the earth, and everything upon it."

"All that I do ye shall do and more."

So great is the power of true mastery of will-visualization and emotions, that miracles of old can be repeated in present time.

True mastery of will-visualization and corresponding tangible feelings in the body allows a person to perform miracles, including the ability to 'withdraw from the earth its power of gravitation and make himself,
other people, and objects to become as light as a feather'.

Footnotes:

The names and meaning of angel groups come from Quaballah, which is a very ancient set of teachings which together form a common precursor, or root, of three of the world's religions:

Judaism, Islam, and Christianity.

Each degree of the zodiac is ruled by a high being of the heavenly host in the zone girdling the earth, and the angels who work with him or her.
The being and the angels share the same name.
This name is a key to their powers and influence.

Names, phrases, or sections in the angel messages are quoted or paraphrased from the books of Franz Bardon.
